

EJC Meeting with European Parliament President

Brussels: The European Parliament president Josep Borrell Fontelles met on Tuesday, May 2nd 2006, with European Jewish Congress (EJC) President Pierre Besnainou and Secretary General Serge Cwajgenbaum. During the meeting, Mr. Besnainou presented president Borrell with the burning issues on the agenda of the EJC concerning the Middle East, anti-Semitism in Europe and other European and international issues.

The meeting was part of the ongoing open dialogue between the EJC with the European Parliament and was held in a very convivial atmosphere.

The European Jewish Congress is the representative body of European Jewish communities in Europe, federating the 40 elected leaders of national Jewish communities, encompassing approximately 2.5 million Jews.
